SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Jesus once changed water into wine by a word of command at Cana in Galilee. Should we not believe that He changes wine into Blood? For in the symbol of bread it is His Body that is given to you, and in the symbol of wine it is His Blood so that by receiving the Body and Blood of Christ you may become one body and one blood with Him. Thus, we become Christ-bearers, since His Body and His Blood are spread throughout our limbs. So do not think of Them as mere bread and wine; as our Lord said, they are Body and Blood. And if the senses suggest otherwise, let faith confirm you. Do not judge on the basis of taste, but on the basis of faith be assured beyond all doubts that you have been allowed to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. (St. Cyril of Jerusalem)

SOLEMNITY OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

On the Friday following the Feast of Corpus Christi is the devotional Feast of the Sacred Heart. The theme of this day honors Jesus for the love symbolized by His heart. Devotion to the Sacred Heart became popular with mystics in the 13th and 14th centuries. The tradition became widespread as a result of a series of visions of the Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, in 1673 – 1675. Almost 200 years later, in 1856, a special feast was mandated for the universal Church. In 1899, Pope Leo XII ordered that the world be consecrated to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Pope Pius XI elevated the feast to the same rank as Christmas.

MASS DISPENSATION DISCONTINUED

Beginning Sunday, June 6, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Bishop Lucia has discontinued the dispensation from Sunday Mass obligation. Therefore, all the faithful in the Diocese are now asked to return to the celebration of the Mass on the weekend.

SAYINGS OF THE SAINTS

“Just before her death, Joan of Arc wrote, ‘I know this now. Every man gives his life for what he believes. Every woman gives her life for what she believes. Sometimes people believe in little or nothing, and yet they give their lives to that little or nothing. One life is all we have, and we live it as we believe in living it and then it’s gone. But to surrender what you are and to live without belief is more terrible than dying – even more terrible than dying young.’” (Matthew Kelly, Rediscover Catholicism, chapter 11, pg. 133)

A MORNING PRAYER

Lord, a new day brings new hope, new blessings, and an opportunity to begin new adventures. Thank you for the grace to recognize the awesome potential of my waking hours. Let me not assume today will be merely a dull and routine carbon copy of yesterday. You have given me new life – and I want to make the most of it. Thank you for your gifts.

Fr. Joseph Sullivan from Good morning, Lord

Special thanks to the Maldonado Family for donating the flowers that grace our St Patrick Cemetery.

PRAYER FOR THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend me.
At the hour of my death, call me and bid me come to you
That with your saints I may praise you
For ever and ever. Amen.
