SAYINGS OF THE SAINTS

“In the first place, when you begin something good you must beg of the Lord with unflagging prayer to bring it to completion, so that He, who has already been so gracious as to count us among His sons, will never be saddened by our evil deeds. In fact, at all times He should be so served with the good things He has given us that not alone will He never like an angry father disinherit His children, nor yet as a dread lord, angered by our misdeeds, hand over to everlasting punishment the wretched servants who did not wish to follow Him to glory.” (St. Benedict, A reading for the Rule of St. Benedict, whose feast day is July 11)

MORNING PRAYER

O God, I offer you myself. You have given Yourself to me – now I want to give myself to You. I give You my body that it may be chaste. I give You my soul that it may be free from sin. I give You my heart that I may always love You. I give You myself in life and in death, knowing this alone brings the happiness I seek. Amen.

Fr. Benedict J. Groeschel, C.F.R.

TRAVELER’S PRAYER

Loving Father, as we journey these next few days, keep us in Your loving care. Protect us from danger, from mechanical failure and from violent storms. Make us wise and prudent around water and in woods and mountains. Help us to be kind to each other and to enter into the relaxation of this trip with joyful hearts and may we return home more thankful, more generous and more mindful of our blessings.

LETS LAUGH A LITTLE

A little boy told a lie. The father – wanting to break him from lying – said, “let me tell you what will happen if you tell lies. A mean old man with a tail and horns like a cow and fingers a foot long with nails that stick out another six inches will come and get you. He will take you to a faraway forest and make you work day and night with nothing to eat but bread and water. You don’t want to tell another lie do you?”

The boy replied, “No, because you can tell them much bigger than I can.” Never let your children see in you what you dislike in them!

NO VACATION FROM THE LORD

To praise God for the gift of each day, as well as all that we are and have, is part of our obligation given us in Baptism. During the summer months when the children are not in school and vacation time arrives, we are still expected to attend Mass and give God thanks and praise. It becomes a particular difficulty or an extra sacrifice when traveling or in a strange city to find the time of Mass, as well as where the church is located. When at camp or on vacation, please make every effort to find a Catholic church where you can attend Mass. What a beautiful family practice – traveling during the summertime on vacation and traveling with the Lord.

The month of July is dedicated to devotion to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. Prayers for protection under the Precious Blood, which Jesus shed on the Cross to redeem us, have great spiritual power. Materials about this devotion can be found on the tables at the entrances.

PRECIOUS BLOOD PRAYER

You have redeemed us, O Lord, in your Blood.

And made us, for our God, a kingdom.

Let us pray:

Almighty and Eternal God, you have appointed your only-begotten Son the Redeemer of the world, and willed to be appeased by his Blood. Grant, we beg of you, that we may worthily adore this price of our salvation, and through its power be safeguarded from the evils of this present life, so that we may rejoice in its fruits forever in heaven.

Through the same Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Can you help? Would you be willing to fix a meal once in a while for someone who isn’t feeling well, or has had surgery? Sometimes its just nice to have someone else feed you!! If you can help, please call the Parish Office. Also, we have begun to offer funeral brunches to families after the death of a loved one. Help is always needed to fix food, serve and clean up following a brunch.

Religious Education

Faith Formation

Until classes resume in the Fall, please continue using the Text and Activity Books with your children. Consider reading and discussing a chapter each Sunday and doing a page or two in the Activity Book as a family!

Respect Life Ministry

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you...” Jeremiah 1:5

The Church teaches that life begins at conception; it is supported by science. From the moment an egg is fertilized, it has its own unique DNA and, therefore, the right to life.

“Thou shalt not kill.” Exodus 20:13

Unfortunately, today’s culture of death has put many lives in danger, from the pre-born to the disabled to the ill to the elderly. Anyone not considered “perfect” (by human standards, not God’s) is in trouble

Can you help? Please pray with us on Tuesday’s at 3pm in the Adoration Chapel. If you would like to pray with us but the time is not convenient, please call Trisha at 315-663-5194 so that we can include you! To respect life is to respect God. As family through the Body of Christ, may we work together to be shining lights for others in valuing human life.

A Church that prays together – stays together! From the St Pat’s Pro-Life Ministry.
